

Minister's Welcome

Hello and welcome to the Kittitas Valley Unitarian Universalist Congregation. I am Reverend Ken Jones and I'm glad you are here! This congregation of open minds and hearts is home to people from many religious backgrounds - including none - who gather to celebrate the gift of life in many ways. If you are looking for a community where you can explore your individual spiritual beliefs and be supported on your path, you have found it. We are a theologically diverse people who believe the bonds of community can be stronger than our differences. Together we have found a place to reflect, worship, celebrate and serve; where we can venture into new territories of the heart and spirit; where relationships can heal, and new friendships made. Whether you are at a crossroads in your life or simply looking for inspiration and spiritual grounding along the way, you are invited to try us on and see if this fits for you. Please join us on Sunday morning for worship. If you want to know more, you can email me at minister@kvuu.org and we'll arrange a time to chat. May you find a home here that nourishes your soul, engages your mind, and inspires you to meet the world with an open heart and a helping hand.

Blessings,

Rev. Ken
